

How do you differentiate a function with BOTH x and y terms that can't be separated algebraically?

In other words, how do you differentiate implicitly?

Implicit Differentiation

